

In determining whether there are conditions of release that will reasonably assure the appearance of the Defendant and the safety of other persons and the community, the Court considers all evidence regarding:

- (1) the nature and circumstances of the offense charged (including whether the offense is a crime of violence or involves a narcotic drug);
- (2) the weight of the evidence against the person;
- (3) the history and characteristics of the person, including —
  - (A) the person's character, physical and mental condition, family ties, employment, financial resources, length of residence in the community, community ties, past conduct, history relating to drug or alcohol abuse, criminal history, and record concerning appearances at court proceedings; and
  - (B) whether, at the time of the current offense or arrest, the person was on probation, on parole, or on other release pending trial, sentencing, appeal, or completion of sentence for an offense under Federal, State, or local law; and
- (4) the nature and seriousness of the danger to any person or the community that would be posed by the person's release. . .

18 U.S.C. §3142(g). Upon review of these factors, particularly the nature and circumstances of the charged offense and Defendant's extensive prior criminal record, the Court concurs with the magistrate judge that bond is not appropriate, even on a temporary basis.

Alternatively, Defendant requests that the Court direct the U.S. Marshal's Service to transport Defendant to view his son's body pursuant to policy of the U.S. Marshal's Service. The undersigned has discussed the instant request at length with the U.S. Marshal's Service. The Marshal's Service considers Defendant such a high security risk that transporting Defendant under any circumstances is not recommended. For this reason, Defendant's alternative request must be denied as well.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that Defendant's Motion To Review Magistrate's Denial Of Bond (or Appeal of Detention Order) is hereby DENIED. Defendant's motion for hearing and alternative motion to be escorted to view his son's body are likewise DENIED. Defendant shall remain in custody pending adjudication on the charged offenses.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk shall certify copies of this Order to Defense Counsel, the United States Attorney, the United States Marshal, and the United States Probation Office.

Signed: June 3, 2005

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Richard L. Voorhees". The signature is written in a cursive style with a horizontal line underneath the name.

Richard L. Voorhees
United States District Judge

